MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must meet the following requirements on or before the date of the test. Either:

A. Graduation from a regionally accredited or a New York State registered college or university with an associate’s degree in computer science, computer technology, information management technology, or science, or related field and one year of work experience in user support in the operation of a personal computer and peripheral equipment; OR

B. Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and three (3) years of experience as stated in (A); OR

C. An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by the limits of (A) and (B) above.

CANDIDATES MUST SUBMIT A COPY OF THEIR COLLEGE TRANSCRIPT AT TIME OF APPLICATION.
DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: The work involves responsibility for providing first line technical assistance and support for information technology users. A Computer Support Specialist usually is the initial contact for information technology users seeking technical assistance and/or questions related to computer hardware, software, networks and peripheral equipment. An incumbent also may create computer user identification names and passwords, perform basic computer operations such as querying a database and printing reports, and creating backups of information according to a prearranged schedule. The work is performed under direct supervision. The incumbent exercises no supervision. Does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: The examination will consist of two parts: a rated evaluation of training and experience and a qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass the evaluation of training and experience in order to take the qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass both tests in order to be considered for appointment. Only your rating on the evaluation of training and experience will be considered when computing final scores. Candidates who receive a passing score on the online exam must also qualify on the performance test. The performance test will be given by this department on Saturday, November 18, 2017.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION (Part I):

Rated Evaluation of Training and Experience: (Ranking Test)
You will complete a questionnaire that asks for specific information on your information technology education (formal degrees, IT-related training courses, certifications) and experience. You will also be asked to briefly describe a significant achievement in each of the job's areas and to provide the name and contact information for someone who can verify your information. The information you provide about your experience will be rated against the following areas:

Help Desk

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION (Part II):

Qualifying Performance Test: (Pass/Fail) The performance test will cover knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

Qualifying Multiple-Choice Test of Logical Reasoning and Interpreting Instructions for Computer-Related Positions
These questions test for ability to reason logically and interpret instructions in a computer-related context. They cover verbal and quantitative reasoning, flowchart interpretation and applying written directions. The verbal and quantitative reasoning questions include logical implications (e.g., if A and B, then C) and relations (e.g., greater than). Knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division is necessary, but neither mathematical sophistication nor computational speed is needed. The flowchart interpretation questions require prior knowledge of flowchart conventions. The interpreting instructions questions provide the instructions and specific rules for applying them. All the information needed to answer the questions is presented with the questions.

Qualifying Simulation Test on Working Effectively with Others to Solve Job-Related Problems
This test requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in an Information Technology work group who is working with colleagues during a time of change in policy or procedure, in a particular agency. During the test, candidates will be required to deal with obstacles within the working environment, which includes peer relations and the demands of handling multiple tasks. Candidates will be required to demonstrate the ability to be flexible, creative and persistent as a team player. They will also need to demonstrate the ability to cooperate, show initiative, and establish positive working relationships with peers and administrators.

Qualifying Simulation Test of User Support and Training
The test requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in a Help Desk support unit. Candidates will be presented with a user’s problem. During the course of handling the problem, candidates will be required to: demonstrate communication skills, apply troubleshooting practices and tools, determine the appropriate level of training needed by the user, and educate the user on the proper use of computers.
Qualifying test scores may be banked and applied to future examinations for titles that require the same test plan.

Performance WAIVER POLICY

If a candidate has previously passed an IT performance test prepared by the New York State Department of Civil Service and using the same test plan as announced, the qualifying test may be waived subject to verification. The candidate must have passed a performance test administered by the Jefferson County Department of Human Resources, New York State Department of Civil Service, or local civil service agency located in New York State within three years of the date of the written exam. A candidate requesting such a waiver must submit verifiable evidence of passing the qualifying test, including the name of the Civil Service agency that administered the test and the test date.

This examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations will apply to this written test.
